THE LAST NIGHT.

THE FLOWER FESTIVAL CLOSING
SUCCESSFULLY.

Prizes Awarded—The Ladies Thank
Everybody Who Assisted Them—
Biggest Receipts of Any Festival
Up to Date—Tired Out.

The Flower Festival is over. After 11 days and nights of brilliancy, the old Pasadena will sink back into its own monotonous place of a popular price museum.

The festival is over and the flowers are dead. No more will the crowds pour in at the open doors; no more will the city maidens and the callow youth sit and sigh under evergreen arches and by sparkling waters; no more the scenes, no more the songs; no more the dances, no more the sharp wit.

THE UTAH ROAD WILL BE BUILT AT ONCE.

Work to Be Commenced Within 30 Days—A Double Track to Be Built to Pasadena by the Santa Fe People.

Within the next 30 days, said a gentleman in a position to know, yesterday's Times report, "work will certainly be begun on the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Utah Railroad, starting most probably at San Pedro."

Much has been written and much said about the road, but there has at last come a definite statement that the Santa Fe and the road is a certainty. It is the outcome of an effort of Pasadena and Los Angeles capitalists. A syndicate was formed in New York, and a loan sufficient to build the road was obtained.

The line will begin at San Pedro and come in as direct a course as possible to Los Angeles. From there it will take a direct line to Pasadena, and from there on to the San Bernardino Mountains. Through the range the road will follow the water courses, tunneling where necessary. Emerging from the foothills, a direct course will be taken toward Dry Lake, in Ventura county, and striking the Atlantic and Pacific between Yuma and Nevada, and strikes the Utah Southern at Frisco, a small mining town, near the eastern base of the San Bernardino range.

Right of way has been secured for nearly the whole distance, but a few gaps remain to be filled. The Santa Fe people are now arranging to secure. When laying out the route it was found that the Altadena road, which runs from the city to the mountains, running from Pasadena to the foothills, lay directly in the route, and negotiations for purchase of the right of way resulted in the purchase of the road.

The San Pedro, Los Angeles and Utah is built with the idea of furnishing a shorter route to the San Bernardino Mountains. The Burlington people are arranging for a line that will intersect it. The line will be a double track, and will be built in a large part, they will bring into Los Angeles nearly all the business of the San Bernardino Mountains. The total length of the line will be 275 miles, as now surveyed.

The Pasadena people are the line is another, and they are pushing through it will have the long-looked-for rapid transit. The gentleman quoted above, who is a resident of Pasadena, says that the road will be built to the full proposed route, and that the Santa Fe people need to close up those gaps in the right of way.

The Santa Fe will construct a double track between Los Angeles and Pasadena. How soon, it cannot be definitely stated, but the time is not very far away. The road will be built to the full proposed route, and that the Santa Fe people need to close up those gaps in the right of way.

A HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

F. J. Compton Is Horribly Mangled—The Inquest.

A fatal accident occurred at the Leocore street crossing of the Santa Fe Railroad, in East Los Angeles, yesterday afternoon at 12:25 o'clock. At that hour a freight train of eight cars and an engine was backing at a lively rate to make the side-track to get out of the way of the Glendora train.

THE SAUNTERER.

I like to look into the public schoolrooms of the city occasionally and note what the little ones are doing and saying. I set out for that purpose one day last week, and picked up a few things here and there suggestive of the outspoken honesty and unreserved of childhood. Concomitant is an art that they have not learned. "Children and fools will tell the truth," and speak right out.

In one of the schoolrooms the teacher had been having a talk with her pupils upon the art of growing beautiful. She had explained to them very carefully the day before that it was not alone beauty of features, of form, of complexion that was essential, but that there was a nobler beauty, the beauty of soul which would do more than all things else to impart a lasting beauty to the face. The children were interested; they seemed to understand her, and when I was in the room I heard her say to a young mother who was standing by, "I would like your attention a moment. We want to be beautiful."

Well, Johnnie, you may tell me what you mean by that. The children were interested; they seemed to understand her, and when I was in the room I heard her say to a young mother who was standing by, "I would like your attention a moment. We want to be beautiful."

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Weekly Cable Letter from Berlin.

The Emperor's Improved Health Not Regarded as Permanent.

Another Version of the Kaiser's Tiff with Bismarck.

Bismarck's Followers Still on the Warpath—An English Paper's Attack on the Emperor's Health.

By Telegram to The Times.

BERLIN, April 28.—[Copyright by the New York Associated Press.] The end of the week sees an unbroken change in the Emperor's condition, and the feeling of relief and joy at the good news can be plainly read in the faces of the daily visitors at the castle. There is every reason to believe that no further complications will set in, at least for some weeks, now that the danger of the crisis is over. The Emperor's condition, however, is not yet permanent, and the final result is only postponed. The North German Gazette, which usually takes a pessimistic view of the Emperor's case, says:

"At any rate, the local disease is unusually slow in progress. Even now one can speak neither of a very material extension of the malady nor of its much dreaded spreading to other and especially vital organs."

This extract rather represents the reaction that has taken place in the German press since the admitted success of Dr. McKenzie's treatment, and the now almost equally admitted fact that the recent crisis was mainly due to Dr. Bergmann's futile attempts to insert a new canula. Dr. Bergmann said to Dr. McKenzie: "It matters little what the feelings of the German people may be, but I have my reputation to preserve and I will sign nothing that is contrary to the truth."

The fact that Dr. Bergmann signed the recent bulletins is therefore of exceptional importance.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.

One of the physicians attending the Emperor expressed his views, as follows:

"Considering the gravity of the Emperor's malady, his condition is as good as cured. He is now in a state of convalescence, and at any moment, nevertheless, apart from accidents, new developments are not expected for a month or six weeks. The strong constitution of the Emperor may carry him over this, but it is useless to deceive ourselves and hope too much."

The Emperor was much encouraged yesterday by reading the report of the case of a Hungarian schoolmaster, who submitted to trepanning in 1881, and is still in fair health. As a further sign that the present danger is past, M. Herbet, the French Minister, who has been in Vienna for some time longer, is now in good health and he leaves his bed today.

Carl Schurz is staying with Henry Villard in this city.

FLOQUET DENOUNCED.

The Boulangist members of the Chamber of Deputies have denounced their intention to interpellate the Government in regard to the arrest made after the Boulangist banquet last night, and the arrest of M. Floquet, who was one of the men arrested, has sent a letter to Premier Floquet affirming his constitutional right to do so, and that he will not be intimidated by the aggressive manner in which the police treated the people gathered in front of the Cafe Riche last night as unjustified by statute, and holding M. OLD WORLD ECHOES.

An American Bicyclist Defeated by an Englishman.

LONDON, April 28.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The second of the three bicycle races to be contested by William A. Rowe of America and Richard Howell of England, for the championship of the world, was run today at Molineux's grounds at Wolverhampton. The distance was one mile. Howell won by 20 yards. Howell won the previous race, a distance five miles, which was run two weeks ago at Leicester.

THE AILING EMPEROR.

ROME, April 28.—A bulletin issued this morning says the Emperor's condition is unchanged. He was almost without fever this morning. The Emperor ate beef yesterday for the first time since the beginning of his recent illness.

The decline in the Emperor's temperature is extremely gradual, being only one-tenth of a degree less today. It is not likely that he will be able to exercise for some time to come.

A PRIMA DONNA'S SUICIDE.

LONDON, April 28.—Heleen Crommond, prima donna, committed suicide Wednesday night. She had signed a contract with the Drury Lane Opera Company, but owing to a misunderstanding she tore up the contract in a fit of temper. Later she tried to reopen negotiations, but in the meantime a substitute had been engaged, and Mrs. Crommond was shot herself. Mrs. Crommond was the daughter of Mrs. Rachel, and accompanied Mapleson on one of his American tours.

AN EVIL OMEN.

LONDON, April 28.—Gen. Ignatieff has been unanimously elected president of the Slavonic Benevolent Society of St. Petersburg, in place of Gen. Durnovo, who resigned. The selection of Gen. Ignatieff has produced a bad omen in Vienna, and is considered to bode ill to the peace of Europe.

PENDLETON AND SCHURZ.

BERLIN, April 28.—Pendleton, the American Minister, will remain at Wiesbaden some time longer. His condition is improving and he leaves his bed today.

Carl Schurz is staying with Henry Villard in this city.

And see just where it is located,

You will find it to be CLOSE INSIDE with all the conveniences and advantages of living in the city. While within easy walking distance of all the central and leading points, it is accompanied by TWO STREET CAR LINES.

WATER has been piped to every lot. Streets are being graded, graveled, curbed and cement sidewalks on official grades, to be finally accepted by the city and sprinkled thereafter.

Thus Making It, When Done, the Most Completely Finished Tract Ever Offered in Los Angeles.

It fronts on two of the great coming thoroughfares of the city, viz. SEVENTH ST., the great cross-street of the town, and CENTRAL AVE., destined soon to be our most accessible and grandest drive, leading south through Verdona and the richest horticultural portion of Los Angeles county.

In this section the greatest margins of advance are yet to be made and surely will come. More general improvements inaugurated and on foot in this direction than any other portion of the city. This ground, for healthfulness and comfort, is excelled by none. All things duly considered, it is undoubtedly the cheapest property offered in this market today.

WILL COST YOU NOTHING to investigate and judge intelligently for yourself, as I will be pleased to convey you to the property and show you its merits at all hours.
